Songwriting Residency with Bobby Long

As our Songwriting class students prepare for their concert at The Paramount scheduled to take place next month, they were lucky to welcome artist-in-residence Bobby Long into their classroom to provide feedback to help them refine their pieces.

Originally from England, Bobby Long now lives in New York. Click here to read our latest blog and see photos from the classroom.

College Audition Master Class with Tess Primack

LIHSA students got a first-hand lesson in the college audition process by Carnegie Mellon University Graduate and acclaimed Broadway actress Tess Primack.

Tess' Broadway Credits include Fiddler on the Roof. She worked with the students on practical advice to bring to their college auditions. Read more on our blog.

In the Classroom: A Residency Spotlight

Our Stage Combat classes have been prepping for in-house presentations. They created fight choreography to scenes they selected with a partner. Check out our latest blog to see photos from their culminating works

Dismissal Diaries with Ms. Giglio Pac: Annalise Taylor

During bus dismissal this week, LIHSA's Assistant Principal, Ms. Giglio Pac, caught up with Annalise Taylor. Find out what's new with her by reading our latest Dismissal Diaries blog entry.
