Out of the Classroom: To Broadway!

Students in the Scenic Construction and Production Technologies program enjoyed an extraordinary experience on Broadway when they attended a performance of Almost Famous with teacher Erik Chocianowski and Work-Based Learning Coordinator Iris Wiener. After the energetic musical, the lucky students met with Academy Award winning director and writer, Cameron Crowe (Almost Famous, Jerry Maguire) and one of the show's stars, LIHSA alumnus Jakeim Hart. The Art Guild's Juried Competition & Exhibition: Due Sunday, January 15

What are your personal and visual reflections?

"Is it the beauty of the sky and the trees reflected in the water's glassy surface? Or is it an image in a mirror, or even your state of mind? Perhaps it's a distant memory, a thought, inner light, or a recent experience that engages your creativity. Bring your reflection to life with the power of photography in this exciting exhibit at The Art Guild."

Show us your inner and outward reflections. Click for more information.

Opportunities for Students

Attention Instrumental and Vocal Students!

American Music and Drama Academy Open Houses

The American Music and Drama Academy (AMDA) will present Open Houses in New York City February 11 and April 1. Attendees will experience a day in the life of an AMDA student and learn more about their faculty and performing arts curriculum. Attendees will also participate in a Q&A with alumni and faculty, learn about financial aid and scholarships, and receive personalized guidance through their admission process. Click here for more information and registration.

Fabulous Faculty News

Congratulations to LIHSA Teacher Jerry Nobile for being voted Teacher of the Year at the Long Island Drum Center/School in Hicksville where he teaches on weekends!

Faculty Spotlight: Robyn Morgan

This year, Robyn Morgan is teaching part time in our Multimedia Journalism program (we share her with Barry Tech). Next year we'll have her full-time all to ourselves at LIHSA! Click here to read more about her in the blog we wrote in anticipation of her joining our LIHSA family.

Alum in the News

LIHSA Alum Annalise Taylor was recently featured in Newsday's Faces of Long Island column. Click here to read her powerful story.
