We'll Miss You, Roman!

This semester, LIHSA was thrilled to have Roman, a talented dancer from Slovakia, as a performing arts student. Last week, we said goodbye to Roman as he begins his new adventures in his study abroad program.

Best of luck, Roman. You will be missed!

In The Classroom: A Virtual Visit with Author Diane Haslam

During the pandemic, LIHSA teacher Kimberly Larkin made new connections. One of them was author Diane Haslam who wrote a book used in LIHSA's Song Interpretation and Analysis class. This week, Diane spoke with LIHSA students for the third time since Ms. Larkin's original outreach to talk about the methods in her text and working in music.

Announcements: Winter Festival January 21

Out on the Town

Did you know...

Long Island Music Hall of Fame opened a brand new museum in Stony Brook. And they present concerts too! Next up:

The Mary Lamont Band will be performing this Sunday, January 22 @ 3 PM at the Long Island Music and Entertainment Hall Fame.

Free with admission and members are also free!

Called the "Queen of Long Island Country" by Newsday, Mary Lamont was three times voted Band of the Year by the NY Metro CMA, twice voted Singer/Songwriter of the Year by the NJ CMA, and is the first American country act to tour Mainland China. Raised in rural Ontario, Mary has been featured in ASCAP's prestigious Playback Magazine, is featured in ASCAP.com's Audio Portraits, and has opened for Delbert McClinton and Marshall Tucker as well as Charlie Daniels Band at NYCB Theatre at Westbury. Mary also had the honor of singing with Les Paul's Trio at the famous Iridium Club in New York City. Mary is also a radio DJ at WUSB 90.1 Stony Brook University, where she hosts Down Home Country on alternate Sundays, 12:00-1:00 PM. For more info, visit Mary's website at <http://www.marylamont.com>.

Upcoming performances will include A Band Called Sam on January 29. More about other events at www.limusicalloffame.org/museum/.

MINDFUL MINUTE

- 1) Breathe deeply, slowly, and quietly
- 2) Close your eyes or watch the screen
- 3) Listen for the bell after one minute

With cold weather, the semester ending, and lots of germs going around, it's important for students, faculty, and families to practice stress-reducing techniques. One thing that helps is meditation, even in small doses! The Site Based Committee would like to share this video and encourage you to take a Minute for Mindfulness each day this week.
