In the Classroom: A Residency Spotlight

Students in the Activism and Performance in Theatre classes are excited to be working with Logann Grayce, a professional writer and actor with extensive experience in facilitating support groups and community events. Click to read more.

Students in the Community

Last month Production & Managerial Arts students visited Molloy to help work the Elf the Musical show.

At LIHSA they constructed a windmill and a cart used as stage scenery in the productions. Students were able view the stage, scenery and some of their own work at the theater.

Alumni Spotlight

LIHSA is lucky to have both special alumni and extraordinary faculty. There's one person who is in each of these groups and that is the very talented, wonderfully dedicated, and lovely L'aura Bagdziunas. Read more about her in our Alumnus Spotlight. Photo Credit Jaqlin Medlock Photography.

College Forward!

Congratulations...

Joseph Chen was accepted into Berklee College.

Kyra Townsend was accepted to Champlain College for Game Design.

Norwalk Conservatory

After Norwalk Conservatory's auditions at LIHSA, 6 students were accepted to the Pre-College Program with scholarships and one student was accepted to the Conservatory with a $10,000 annual scholarship! Congratulations to all of the students who applied and auditioned! We are looking forward to hearing more acceptances this month!

Cultural Kudos (Corrected)

Congratulations to LIHSA students who attended All-State Winter Conference in Rochester December 1 - 4!

COMMITTEES:

The PTSA is still in need of volunteers for the Nominating Committee, the Scholarship Committee, and the Auditing Committee. These are all committees that do not require a large amount of volunteer time, but do require a few more members for each committee.

Please click the link for Sign-Up Genius to volunteer:
